Vocational awards.

What a great night ! We had in excess of 90 members/guests in attendance - it had a really great feel as all in attendance chatted and exchanged experiences.

There were representatives from a wide variety of vocational activities - perhaps the main purpose of the night. The manner in which they mixed, networked and communicated was a sight to behold. A direct result of the the hard work by Marita and the Vocational service committee. Well done to all involved !!

Wisdom for the Week ....

I've come to understand that listening is one of the most important things we can do for one another... if we care, we can listen.

One liners ....

- I told him to be himself; that was pretty mean, I guess.
- My father has schizophrenia, but he's good people.
- I don't suffer from insanity—I enjoy every minute of it.
- Doctor, there's a patient on line one that says he's invisible.' 'Well, tell him I can't see him right now'.

The venue entry worked seamlessly and the table settings were easy to access and follow. Meals were served efficiently and were magnificent ! Beef cheek and chicken ....

MC Rod Greer had the audience eating out of his hand as he advised them that the loos were to be locked during the presentation - what a response !!!

The presentations were made to our sponsors (without whom the event wouldn't have been possible) and then the winners/runners up.

Sponsors and Award winners are listed below.

Congratulations to them all !!

GOVERNMENT NOTICE!

To help save the economy, the Government will announce next month that the Immigration Department will start deporting seniors (instead of illegals) in order to lower Social Security and Medicare costs.

Older people are easier to catch and will not remember how to get back home. Be sure to send this notice to your relatives and friends, so they'll know what happened to you.

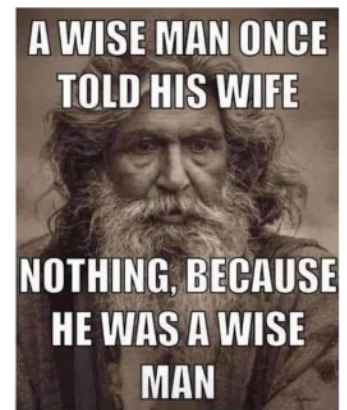

I started to cry when I thought of you.

Then it dawned on me; I'll see you on the bus.

An elderly man was on the operating table awaiting surgery to be performed by his son, a renowned surgeon. Just before they would put him under, he asked to speak to his son: "Don't be nervous, son, do your best and just remember, if it doesn't go well, if something happens to me... your mother is going to come and live with you and your wife."
