Wisdom for the Week

Do the best you can until you know better. Then when you know better, do better

One Liners

- There was a king once who was 12 inches tall. Terrible king, great ruler.
- Of all the inventions of the last hundred years, the dry erase board is the most remarkable.
- Man goes to his doctor and says "doctor, I think I'm losing my hearing". Doctor says. "can you describe the symptoms for me". Man replies "sure. Homer is fat and bald, marge has tall blue hair..."
- A priest, an imam, and a rabbit are donating blood. The rabbit says "I think I'm a typo"
- I bought an expensive Rolls Royce but didn't pay for a driver. All that money and nothing to chauffeur it.

- Chris Watson (along with several others) were welcomed back from their northern sorties. Chris was presented with his PHF as part of his PHS involvement.

President Meredith And Chris Watson

Footy Gates: Peter Cullen thanked all those who braved the inclement weather to man the gates last weekend, with particular thanks to Coogs who kept all those involved with vittals and fluids. This was at his own expense. The activity raised $6000 for our Admin funds.

Public Image:

- Lyndy Stagg. Clothing and other items are being collected for the Kinship Carers group. Children's items are particularly welcome.
- There will be a social dinner/meeting at the Ming Terrace on Sunday 29/9/24.
- John Paton has organised the Club Meeting of the 8/10/24 at the Wetlands Centre (Club House) on Lake Road, Barwon Heads. BBQ will be supplied.

Market: 6/10/24 Adrian Schmidt and Lisa Hanley. Rosters for the market tasks have been circulated.

Footy Tipping: Richard Cahill managed to pick the two winning teams with the appropriate margins Presentations:

Our Art Show - Rod Bush: Rod outlined the history and development of our Art Show over the last 13 years. The process involved in planning, preparing for and mounting this event was detailed and it was stressed that this was a 'whole club' event that relied on member support for those that are available. It's a great fundraiser for supporting local disability focussed organisations

Rod Bush

Shelterbox - Kath Venters: Kath explained how Shelterbox have modified their offerings to better cater for the range of disaster scenarios that are occurring around the world. In the past it had been a 'big green box' to cater for all disasters, but experience has taught Rotary researchers that different disasters required different levels/types of support. We now have Shelter kits that can be tailored to individual needs which are not only cheaper to prepare but are more effective in dealing with the targeted disaster requirements.

Kath Venters

A reminder about your Bowling Club member card: - beside getting reduced prices on your meal/drink, it can all win prizes. Make a point of swiping your card at the reception desk each time you enter the club, to go in the draw.

Next week: Bellarine Community

The manager at the local IKEA is retiring, so I sent him a cake.

The three hardest things to say are:

1. I was wrong
2. I need help
3. Worcestershire Sauce

Exchange Of Text Messages:

Husband: You are negative.

Wife: And you are stubborn, arrogant, a low life, care about no one but yourself and your friends, all you are interested in is your own self, all your life not fulfilled even one of your promises. It is only I who is putting up with such a miser and insensitive man. You good for nothing, fat, ugly man. Even your hair transplant failed.

Husband: I was just informing you that your Covid test is negative.

Wife: Oh.....sorry!
